

IDEAS IDEAS IDEAS

Creating change doesn't have to be costly or complicated - in fact, this most popular keynote is chock-full of ways to create massive change in your school withOUT spending a lot or planning huge initiatives. Based on Steve's popular book of the same title, this session will show you:

- How to rejuvenate the climate and culture in your school while being creative, unique, and fun... which will show your students and staff first-hand how to use their imaginations to problem solve!...
- Ideas that can be implemented RIGHT AWAY (without months-long planning) to improve the morale, culture and climate in your school...
- How to change your thinking when it comes to recognition, reinforcement and results... you don't have to settle for boring old awards anymore! You can inspire your staff through creative recognition that make a real change
